December News

Dear Families,

We want to give a great big thanks to all of the parents who attended and donated to our Harvest Lunch. This was another successful and enjoyable Preschool event and we truly appreciate your support!

December will be another busy month. Please see the important dates for the month below.

December 3rd - BOOK ORDERS DUE

December 7th - HOLIDAY TRADTIONS BEGIN
Please see Mrs. Misarti or Mrs. Garosshen to schedule a time to come to the classroom and share one of your family's holiday traditions with the children.

December 14th - NIGHT TREE 6:30pm
We will be having our annual Night Tree Celebration here in our classroom.. Please see the attached Night Tree Sheet for more information.

December 23rd - PAJAMA DAY
Children may wear their pajamas to school. No slippers please. Children should still wear appropriate shoes as we plan to go outside for our playground time.

December's Share Schedule

December 1st - Bring in something you can see through

December 8th - Bring in something from "Dinosaur Times" (hints: a picture you draw with your child, a picture printed from the internet, a dinosaur toy, a lego cave etc…)

December 15 - Bring in something your family uses to celebrate a holiday (hints: an ornament, a picture of a special holiday food, a picture of your family celebrating a holiday)

December 22nd - NO SHARE

Have a wonderful December and be on the lookout for our classroom website coming soon!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Garosshen and Mrs. Misarti
