Farmington High School Library

The Mission/Values of the Farmington SEPTO:

We believe that all children have the right to receive an education that enables them to reach their full potential.

We believe that all parents should be informed about special education, including how to advocate for their children and collaborate with their school team.

We believe in educating legislators, school boards, other PTO's in Farmington and the public about the importance of special education programs.

We believe in improving the lives of children and families by providing for their cultural, social and physical enrichment.

We believe in supporting all children and their right to a free and appropriate public education in the least restrictive environment.

We believe in bringing together parents, families and educators in order to gain experience from each other.

Please join us at the first meeting of the newly reestablished Farmington SEPTO.

We encourage all families in Farmington with a child on an IEP, 504 or otherwise interested in or curious about Farmington Special Services to attend.
