

Book Donations Wanted

The Friends of the Farmington Libraries is seeking donations of books for upcoming book sales and for stocking the library's Book Nook. Please keep in mind that books must be newer and in excellent condition.

The following are especially appreciated:

- Large print books
- Recent bestsellers for adults, hardcover and paperback
- Children's books (all ages), hardcover and paperback
- Clean copies of classics, poetry, literature and foreign language
- Non-fiction books on science, business, parenting, self-help, history, politics, religion, travel, etc.
- Cookbooks and gardening books
- "Coffee Table" or other special interest books (antiques, collectibles, art, etc.)
- CDs, DVDs, books on CD, games and puzzles
- Unique vintage books that are clean and intact

As you collect books for donation, please consider these exceptions:

- No travel guides, finance, medical/health/diet books with copyright before 2015
- No audiocassettes or VHS tapes
- No magazines, encyclopedias or Reader's Digest books
- No large sets of books except for classics

Books may be left at the circulation desk at either library.
