

FARMINGTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Press Release

~~~~~IMPORTANT~~~~~

Released by: Farmington Board of Education/Kathleen C. Greider, Supt.

Release date: May 24, 2016

FARMINGTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS ANNOUNCES THE APPOINTMENT OF SUPERVISOR OF SPECIAL EDUCATION EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2016

(For immediate release: Farmington Public Schools May 24, 2016)

Superintendent Kathleen C. Greider and the Farmington Board of Education are proud to announce the appointment of Scott Rossignol to the position of Supervisor of Special Education effective July 1, 2016.

After a comprehensive national search, Mr. Rossignol was selected from a strong and experienced pool of candidates. In his current role as Supervisor of Special Services in the Avon Public Schools, Mr. Rossignol has provided support to preschool programming, specialized programs and all aspects of special services at the elementary level. He has worked collaboratively with parents, faculty, administration and the community to continuously improve programming for students with special needs. Prior to his current assignment in Avon, Mr. Rossignol worked as a school psychologist in the Southington and Hebron Schools. He holds state credentials as a Certified School Psychologist and Certified Intermediate Administrator from the State of Connecticut Department of Education.

Superintendent Greider states, "I am pleased to welcome Scott Rossignol to the Farmington Public Schools. Mr. Rossignol's commitment to excellence in serving all students and his deep dedication to students with special needs make him an ideal candidate for the position of Supervisor of Special Services."

Laurie Singer, Director of Special Education, states, "Scott distinguished himself from a competitive pool of candidates. His experiences in developing preschool programs and in working with elementary teams will be an asset to the district. I look forward to beginning our partnership."

Board of Education Chair Christopher Fagan, "On behalf of the Farmington Board of Education, I commend the search committee for their hard work in moving forward an outstanding candidate. Mr. Rossignol will bring a wealth of knowledge to the position of Supervisor of Special Services. In Farmington, our mission speaks to developing the whole child and providing an outstanding education that allows all students to meet personal and academic excellence. Mr. Rossignol will be a great addition to a strong administrative team in Farmington.”

Upon his appointment, Mr. Rossignol commented, "I am extremely excited to join the Farmington Board of Education's school community and leadership team. It is truly an honor to become a member of a district with such an excellent reputation and long-standing history of student academic success. I look forward to serving the students and families of Farmington for years to come."

Brief Bio:

Mr. Rossignol comes to us from Avon Public Schools where he served as the Special Education Supervisor. Mr. Rossignol also serves as an Adjunct Professor at the University of Connecticut in the Teacher Certification Program for College Graduates.

Mr. Rossignol earned his Master’s Degree in School Psychology from the University of Hartford and his Bachelor’s Degree from Central Connecticut State University in Psychology. In addition, he earned his Sixth Year Certificate from the University of Hartford and holds his Intermediate Administrative Certificate from Sacred Heart University.

###